I am a resourceful and detail-oriented Front-end Web Developer bringing in-depth knowledge of latest technology trends to produce robust and clean websites. I'm comfortable with handling complex HTML, CSS and JavaScript coding to create solutions to meet the organization's front-facing internet needs. I have a strong taste for clean code and thus, I inculcate best practices such as tried and tested design patterns mentioned in the Gang Of Four book-The Bible of Object Oriented Programming.
